Great Sale of "Onyx" Hose FROM Lord AND Taylor, BROADWAY, New York.

Even less than half prices will not create a doubt concerning "Onyx" Hose. The reputation of Messrs. Lord and Taylor is reflected in their "Onyx" Hose. While the 1894 designs are in most instances as attractive as the '95 importations, Messrs. L. & T. sacrifice profit to pride and dispose of balance of 1894 stock at less than cost of manufacture. The Palais Royal, G and Eleventh Streets, is the Washington depot for the distribution of the goods.

Great Sale of Underwear From New York.

The maker's name cannot be used. To explain—The leading retail merchants of New York have bought largely of this maker. For him to dispose of surplus stock at a nominal price to any one would be to offend all others. Thus these garments come to Washington's Palais Royal and the promise is made that the maker's name shall not be used.

49c
For Garments Worth
From 68c to $1 Each.

NOT MANY OF ANY ONE STYLE, BUT NEARLY THE HUNDRED DIFFERENT STYLES OF SKIRTS, GOWNS, DRAWERS, COSETT CUFFERS AND CHEMISES, CAMBRIC AND MUSLIN, EMBROIDERY AND LACE TRIMMED.
The goods were arriving as this announcement was being written, so that probably as good or better values may be here tomorrow morning.

Another Sale.
We are authorized to use the well-known name of D. E. Sicher as maker of the Fine Under Garments mentioned below.

to $2.50 each.

THESE GOODS WERE ON SALE THIS MORNING, AND JUDGING BY THE QUICK SELLING THEY ARE VERY DESIRABLE HANGINGS. IT MAY BE THAT THE PRICES WORTH $2.50 WILL BE ALL GONE BY TOMORROW, BUT AS NOT A GARMENT IS WORTH LESS THAN $1.25 THE LATEST VISITOR WILL SECURE EXTRA GOOD VALUE.

N. B.
Since these are the most important sales series of the season, the attendance is certain to be large. Being anxious regular patrons should be profit by the opportunity, we recommend an early call—that choice means a great advantage over late selections.

Mrs.=====
MADAM—we've got a lot of Men's Unaltered Madras and Cheviot Shirts, about 500 dozens, that we have bought very low. And we're going to offer them low. We wish you'd look at 'em—because there are lots of points that you can understand and appreciate better than your husband. They are made with pointed yokes—set-in gussets—felled seams—shaped collar band. Those are things that give wear. We'll guarantee the colors—guarantee the fit—guarantee it to be a better shirt than 50 cents has bought in many a long day. They are not reduced—because they are new goods—just in. Never were marked until now—we've marked 'em

50 Cts.
Worth a good bit more.

Neckwear.
If you're a judge of Silk you'll say these Gravats are all right. In the new Spring Gravats colors. Imperials for men who can take their own scars—Ties for those who can't.

50 Cts.
Let's see if you can match 'em for 75c. anywhere.

We've Got the "Dotson Hosiery"
That's the spring novelty—pink spots on the heels. Cadet Blue and State grounds. But aside from the fashion features they are specially good Sox—with double heels and toes.

35 Cts.
Also cottons. All sizes.

Mackintoshes—
The showery splash is before you—and if you've got a Mackintosh you needn't worry whether it rains or shines. We've got 'em as high as $20. But we've got one—a Black Wide Wade—with 27-inch cape—that'll keep you dry. It's a special make—for us—and that's how we get the price down to $3.75.

It's about like the $7 kins elsewhere.
